Volunteers Instruction Evening

Volunteer Instruction Evening

"Mr BHCC" Michael Robertson addressed our meeting including the attending Volunteers on the Volunteer commitments and process.

Michael is one of the main contributors to the BHCC success.

District Conference

Greg Newling commented on the conference

- Use of Facebook can be significant and Social Media we need an operator and maintainer
- There was a report of setting up a school in Afghanistan mainly for girls. It is a partner between Indego Foundation and Rotary. The village was blighted by tribal warfare & children from 3 tribes attend the school and have introduced peace in the area
- A potential new youth program to assist physically disadvantaged but mentally capable
- Last year there were 22 polio cases world wide and this year there have been 9
- Next year the District Conference will be held at Chatswood on 23 Feb—single day

Rotary Awareness Night

Rotary awareness night is April 22

Greg Newling in Hospital

Greg was in the middle of a well planned execution of his implementation as a Volunteer supervisor when sadly he was taken to Hospital on Saturday evening. I understand he is still in hospital undergoing tests.

Members managed to sell $1,330.10 raffle tickets and I am confident this would have been $2,660.10 if Greg had been on the field selling. I guess the message is Greg, get well soon please.

BHCC

BHCC was a great success and our members, particularly, Peter Kipps, John Aitken and Ross Egan all pulled together to produce the good day. The feedback from Riders has been pleasing with special mention of the excellence of Volunteer Marshalls.

Restaurant Evening

In the next 4 weeks we are having a Restaurant Evening.

Recommendations for good Restaurants are welcome.

Caroline Jones Bookmark

Caroline designed and printed the bookmark below and had it printed for inclusion with the Bibs posted to riders.

The Bookmark has a caption on the back, Join Rotary and make a difference. Enjoy dinner with us and find out more. Also a contact phone # for each of our three BHCC Clubs.
